THACHER WILL ACCEPT.

HIS FRIENDS SAY HE ISN'T PAR-TICULAR ABOUT THE PLATFORM.

It Looks as Though He Would Be Nom! anted for Governor, Although After the Financial Plank Had Been Beetded Upor by the Sub-committee a Boom Was Started for Justice Maybam-Heating for a Candidate for Lieutenant-Governor

BUFFALO, Sept. 16.-They thought at one time to-day that John Boyd Thacher had escaped. A report went over the town that he had withdrawn as the candidate for Governor. This report was untrue, but for a time it made things very uppleasant all around. Anthony N. Brady of Albany, who has the Thacher boom in tow, hopped about denying the story, and nobody knew more about the matter than Mr. Brady, and he was confident that Mr. Thacher would not pull out without first notifying him The managers of this Convention have had hard enough trouble trying to get candidates to ac cept nominations without, at this time, having their labors increased and complicated by Thacher's withdrawal. It is true that there is an opposition here to Mr. Thacher's nomination. It is of a personal nature, and it was started by Cuyler Ten Eyek of Albany, who has a personal grievance against Mayor Thacher. Mr. Ten Eyck is an artist. He once painted a portrait of Gov. Flower to be hung in the Executive Chamber at Albany, Gov. Flower did not like the painting, and sent it to the Mayor's office, and Mayor Thacher, when he became the chief officer of the city of hills, promptly turned it to the wall. Mr. Ten Eyck was very angry at this. He came here this morning with a trunk load of handbills against Mayor Thacher. He has dropped them all over town. He has plastered these handbills in all the corridors of the hotels. The handbill is headed "John Boyd Thacher," and says: "The attention of the delegates is called to the fact that those who are urging the nomination of Mr. Thacher for Governor are men not in sympathy with the platform or nominees but are gold men-more Republican than Demecratic. Mr. Thacher, at the recent State Convention at Saratoga, placed himself on record as unalterably opposed to silver and equally in favor of gold. At no time since has he expressed any different views; but if such a thing were possible, he has emphasized views and opinions. When Mr. Bryan in August visited Albany Mayor Thacher absented himself from the city, so as to avoid welcoming the Democratic nominee for President to the capital of the State. His purpose i to conduct his canvass, if nominated, independently of the national canvass. The nomination, if made, will be for barter and trade, Select no one who is not in full sympathy with the national candidates. Let there be no com promise, no surrender.' Whether there is any truth in the foregoing statements or not is not the question here at the The intention is to continue Mr. Thacher in the race. He must not be allowed to escape. Nevertheless, Mr. Thacher is very severely criticised in other quarters for allowing his name to be used in this Convention. One of his critics recalled to-day that he was Chairman of the Saratoga Convention on June 24. Just before the New York delegation went to Chicago, Mr. Thacher, as Chairman of that Conrention, then said: The party of Jefferson and Jackson, of Benton and Tilden, has always favored the best money in use, the money adopted as the standard by the most enlightened nations of the earth. Neither consideration of expediency nor the selfish interests of those who own silver bullion should lead us to depart from the safe and sure path. If it had done no other thing in its four years of power and responsibility, our party should have the gratitude and confidence of the country for stopping the coinage of a fifty-cent dollar."

Mayor Thacher's critte winds up thus: Should this double-faced, shifty politician be nominated, the sound-money conscience Democrats would find a lot of fun in making hash of Notwithstanding all this, the managers of this Convention are praying aloud every moment that John Boyd Thacher shall not be allowed escape. They say they need him in their business. It has been a day when everybody has come in for a good hacking. It is a Convention where crimination and recrimination follow fast and faster. Even Norman E. Mack has come in for another swiping. Mr. Mack is owner of the Buffalo Times, and he is the rankest Bryanite in the community. Mr. Mack was a delegate to the Chicago Convention. He also attended the Saratoga Convention, but, before going to that Convention, where Mr. Thacher stated so soundly his views on the money question, Mr. Mack had this to say in his newspaper as to what should be done at the Saratoga Conven-

"The State Convention which assembles a Saratoga on Wednesday will adopt a platform declaring for sound money as interpreted by Mr. Whitney, Senator Hill, and ex-Gov. Flower. There will be no equivocation or uncertainty is the language used. Let the men who adopt it go to Chicago and fight for a similar platform there. The hope of the party is in forcing the Democratic National Convention to be guided by reason and not fanaticism. New York State as the two men in the Democratic party capable of winning the contest for Democracy as agains unsound currency and party disruption at Chicago, if it can be won. Let David B. Hill and William C. Whitney attend the Convention and save the party from its would-be destroyers."

Now it is pointed out that Mr. Mack in his newspaper has joined the ranks of those whom in June he described as the "would-be destroyers" of the Democratic party, and is engaged in villifying Democrats who were "guided by reason and not fanaticism" in June, and who prefer to be so guided in September.

And so it has been all day long. Every one i pointing at his neighbor and making faces. This was the situation up to nightfall. The situation of the day from the adjournment of the Convention was that John Boyd Tacher had drawn the black bean out of the hat, and he was expected to keep it and not to fling it away. He will be politically shot to death in the Convention to-morrow. A good many folks wanted to know why the Convention adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. The facts are that the managers of this Convention, besides not being altogether sure of Thacher, at odd moments were up a stump for a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor. Those who wanted it could not have it, for the reason that they were not geographically agreeable to Albany, where Mr. Thacher lives. None of the candidates mentioned for Lieutenant-Governor was considered first choice, and it was necessary to adjourn the Convention in the hope of being able to corral a candidate before the Convention assembles again to-morrow morning Major Hinkley, John C. Sheehan, and others did not participate in the hunt for a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor. They rested on their oars, believing that Thacher was all that they could be asked to sacrifice in this Convention. They both said, however, that possibly a candidate would turn up before sunrise to-morrow date would turn up before sunrise to-morrow morning.

It is the disposition of this Convention to endorae Judge Irving G. Vann of Syracuse for Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals. Norman E. Mack, however, and his friends in Buffalo believe that Supreme Court Justice Robert C. Titus of this judicial district should be nominated by the Convention. Judge Titus agrees heartily with the platform of the Chicago Cenvention, which denounces the Supreme Court of the United States.

It has been formally determined to make excongressman H. H. Bockwell of Chemung the permanent Chairman of the Convention. Mr. Rockwell was one of the men to lose his place is political life because he voted for free silver in the House of Representatives. In return he is to be allowed to be the permanent Chairman of this Consention.

is to be allowed to be the permanent Chairman of this Convention.

At one time to-day Frank Campbell of Steuben did not believe that he wanted the place of National Committeeman to succeed William F. Sheshan. This was another complication, and so a telegram was sent to Senator Edward Murphy, at Elberon, asking him if he would accept the place of National Committeeman. Senator Murphy wired the following despatch to Mr. Campbell:

Murphy wired the following despatch to Mr. Campbell:

"Will not accept it. Your selection will be satisfactory to me. I have telegraphed John C. Sheehan to that effect."

The little big four—Mack, Chase, Norton, and Pratt—are fussing about and declaring that they are to upset things in the Convention tomorrow. Just what they are to upset they themselves do not seem to know. The Convention is to endorse Hryan and the Chicago platform, and they all appear friendly to Mayor Thacher's nomination, and so for the life of them they cannot tell what they threaten to upset. They have their man Rockwell as permanent Chairman of the Convention, and it is believed that this should be sufficient honors for them.

believed that this should be sufficient honors for them.

John C. Sheehan has a face that is always a study. He seldom smiles, and even then only in grim fashion. He had one of those srim smiles to-day when he told his friends that the managers of the five Tammany specials, which shot through the State to Buffalo last night, had reported to him this morning.

"The managers of these trains," said Mr. Sheehan to his friends, report that their trips were like coming through one vast graveyard. As for this Convention here, it is the coldest and most uninteresting one I ever attended."

All sorts of stories are affoat late to-night as to what may happen in the Convention to-morrow. Word has been received to the effect that if John Royd Thacher, as the candidate for Governor of this Convention, stands on any but the soundest kind of a money plank, the soundmoney Democrats will nominate a candidate against him and bury him out of sight. This has caused some hesitation in certain quarters, but there is as yet no warrant for changing the slate as to Thacher.

William Henry Clay Sulzer is hustling

money Democrats will nominate a candidate against him and bury him out of sight. This has caused some hesitation in certain quarters, but there is as yet no warrant for changing the slate as to Thacher.

William Henry Clay Sulzer is hustling around, and, for that matter, so are ex-Mayors William B. Kirk and Thomas Ryan of Syracuse. Mr. Kirk says he will have fifty or sixty votes for Governor on the first bullot. Sulzer says he will have very many more than that, and Ryan believes that he will eventually land as the candidate of this Convention for Lieutenant-Governor. Since James W. Ridgway trounced Jim Shevlin, Tony Barrett, and Barney York of Kings county to-day many delegates of this Convention have offered their support to him for Lieutenant-Gevernor.

It is said here that Mayor Thacher himself is hesitating about taking the nomination for Governor on a platform which endorses Bryan and the Chicago platform in any way. It is the present purpose to endorse the Chicago platform and the Chicago platform in any way. It is the present purpose to endorse the Chicago platform in a general way, and not to endorse in detail the frightful features of that platform.

The sound-money Democrats thoroughly understood the game that is being played here, and they have sent word that they are not to be bambooted. It would not be at all surprising, in the estimation of those familiar with the situation, if by sunrise to-morrow morning the best laid plans as to Thacher might be upset. There is even a remote possibility of such a thing happening. Very few believe that it will occur, and those on the inside say that only Mr. Thacher himself can prevent his nominalion for Governor nothing has yet been determined. No victim has yet been lasseed.

Late to-night, after the Sub-Committee on Resolutions reported the financial plank, a boom for Governor was started for Supreme Court Justice Stephen L. Maybam of Schoharie.

Shortly after midnight a conference was called at the Iroquois, Word had been received that Mayor Thacher of Alba

In this Convention.

The conference is bent on forcing the nomination for Lieurenant-Lovernor on ex-Mayor Kirk of Syracuse, but he does not seem to care to put his head in the noose. He says he wants time to consider the proposition.

In order that the conference should not be left in the lurch, scouts were again sent out to hunt up a Monroe or Eric county Dutchman. Mosses Shire, a lawyer of Buffalo, was pulled out of bed at his home, and told that he was the

Mr. Shire is known here as "Mose," and he Mr. Shire is known there as a solution of the his pulled out of bed at 1 o'clock at night and told that he was the "Butchman" to accept the nomination of his Convention for Lieutenant-Governor. He ubbed his eyes over the proposition to make him famous, but his "Butch" sense came to his escue, and he said he wanted until the morner to give his snawer.

rescue, and he said he wanted until the morning to give his answer.

So Kirk, the "Syracuse Dutchman," and Mose." Shire, "the Buffalo Dutchman," are to decide before break fast time in the morning whether they will be lassoed. Either one can have the job, but the powers seem to favor Kirk, the Syracuse Dutchman." He is as much of a Dutchman as a rail fence is a locomotive.

SEWALL STILL UNYIELDING. A Close Friend Says that Bryan's Request Alone Will Make Him Retire.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 16 .- Arthur Sewall feigns an air of no surprise at the result of the Maine election. Many people say: "He'll get off the ticket now sure." A man who knows him perhaps more intimately than anybody else said THE SUN correspondent to-day:

"Sewall resign? Why, they don't know the man. I do not believe there is power enough in the country to force him off. Only one thing in the world could make him even consider it, and that would be a personal request from Bryan himself on the ground that Sewall was hurting his chances in populistic States."

Mr. Sewall had much to say to a correspondent about the "immense fund" the Republicans had. He declared that the Republicans used more money than ever before. Never was so little money used in Maine in a Presidential year; never was so little needed.

legitimate expenses of presenting the issues and organizing the forces were the only expenses there were. The Republican managers were not such fools as to burn money, and that vas what it would have meant. The money influence was absolutely lacking, and it was a full, fair, and free expression of the electors of the fair, and free expression of the electors of the State.

The home of Arthur Sewall is very lively this evening celebrating the result of Monday's election. A torchlight parade, consisting of a cavalcade of horsemen, platoon of nolice, marshal and aides, Bath band, Young Men's Republican Club, drum corps, McKinley Volunteers, and carriages containing Republican City Committee and prominent Republicans, went through the town. Among the most claborately decorated residences were those of Capt, John R. Kelly, Charles Maxwell, William T. Donnell, John O. Patton, Harold M. Sewall, Col. J. Frank Hayden, and Gardiner G. Deering.

The Bath Enterprise office was conspicuously lighted and decorated with flags, linterns, liowers, and pictures of McKinley and Holiart. A large rooster eight feet, high crowing for the 48,000 nlurality, was one of the features. The boyhood home of Judge William L. Putnam, who a few years ago was the Democratic candidate for Governor of Maine, was brilliantly lighted.

YOM KIPPUR RIDICULED.

Hebrew Anarchists Est, Drink, and Talk in Clarendon Hall.

About 300 Hebrew Anarchists crowded int Clarendon Hall last night, listened to speeches expounding the principles of anarchy, and drank bear. The meeting was called to snow the Anarchist contempt for Yom Kippur, which began at sunset last night.

Great indignation was aroused on the east side when the announcement of the meeting was made. In expectation of trouble, Acting Captain Herliby and Roundsman Burke of the Fifth street station, with a squad of men, were present, but there was no call for their services. The meeting was orderly, and the speeches, which were delivered in Hebrew, were mild.

Mr. Kraiz said in his speech:
"We will make the Jews a present of Paradise. We prefer New York," Emma Goldman was present, but did not speak.
Another meeting will be held this afternoon, at which John Most will be the principal speaker.

TO NAME THEIR OWN MEN.

SOUND-MONEY DEMOCRATS TO HAVE COMPLETE STRAIGHT TICKETS.

Candidates for Congress and Assembly to Be Nominated in Every District Where the Third Party Men Have an Organization as Well as a Full State Wicket,

Not only is it the purpose of the Democratic Party Reform Organization at its State Convention, to be held in Brooklyn on next Thursday, to nominate an independent State ticket, but the State Committee of the organization will recommend the nomination of sound-money Democratic candidates for Congress and Assembly in every district where the party has an organization. This statement is made on the authority of half a dozen leaders in the movement who have generally been looked on as formulating the policies and plans of the party. The State Committee will meet in the assembly rooms of the Reform Club on Saturday night to discuss these Some idea of how the sound-money Democrats feel regarding this subject may be obtained from the following statement made by former Congressman John De Witt Warner last

"We will certainly nominate candidates of our own for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor." he said. "A man professedly for sound money who would accept a nomination for Governor from the Buffalo Convention merely to gain a little cheap notoriety for himself would be a sorry spectacle. His end of the ticket would be less respectable than Bryan's, for I believe that Bryan is at least sincere. If we could not support Bryan we certainly could not support such a man. There might be some reason for a union of all Democrats if there were a State issue which overshadowed the currency issue. That is not the case, and the Democratic party reform organization will not stultify itself by supporting a professed gold man on a free-silver platform. Of course, the same objection holds good in the case of men who are willing to run for Congress or the Assembly on a free-silver platform," George Foster Peabody, member of the National Executive Committee from this State. received a letter resterday from Seymour Van Santvoord of Troy, the leader of the soundmoney Democrats in Rensselear county, in money Democrats in Rensselear county, in which he deals with the same subject and refers partifularly to the impossibility of supporting John Boyd Thacher should the latter be named for Governor at Buffalo. Among other things, Mr. Van Santvoord writes:

"My position is that any man who will accept a nomination by the Buffalo Convention after the latter shall have endorsed the Chicago plantorm deserves to be burled, and the candidate for Governor, under such dircumstances, who is actually and by conviction for sound money, instead of being satisfactory to the third-party men, ought to be burled deeper than a genuine silver man. This would be the case were Thacher the nominee. " " What should be done, in my judgment, is to carry this third-party idea to its legitimate conclusion and name as candidates for State officers men who mean what they stand for. " " I have frequently seen it stated that Thacher's nomination would be acceptable to the Palmer people, because Albany's Mayor is for sound money. I am not afraid of inconsistency, but in face of such an abject surrender as this would be my self-respect would not permit me to support such a candidate. There can be no genuine alliance at this time between the supporters of Bryan and the supporters of Palmer."

SKIPPER LAFLIN SAVED HER.

A Dingy Capsized and Mrs. Twelvetree of Bath Beach Almost Drowned.

The schooner yacht Vidette, owned by Herert F. Munn and commanded by Capt. Jack Laffin, returned to Bath Beach from a cruise to Atlantic Highlands last night with a party of six persons, including Mrs. Charles Twelvetree of Avenel cottage, in Bay Eleventh street. The Vidette dropped anchor off Bath Beach at 834 o'clock last night. Five of the party got into small boat, which had put out from the shore, and were safely landed. Mrs. Twelvetree was left on the schooner with the skipper. She saw a dingy on the deck and suggested that the skipper should take her ashore in it. The skipper launched it and made it fast to a cleat, and assisted Mrs. Twelvetree to get in. The tide was running out strongly, and while the skipper was looking for a pair of cars the painter of the dingy slipped and Mrs. Twelvetree found herself drifting swiftly down the bay. She screamed for help, and the skipper, pulling off his shoes and throwing aside his coat, dived into the bay, and swam after the disappearing dingy. He reached the boat, but, in trying to get aboard, capaized it. Mrs. Twelvetree caught hold of the skipper and nearly drowned him before she lost consciousness. He then awam ashore with her and fellon the beach exhausted. It was three-quarters of an hour between the time the boat overturned and the moment he dragged the woman upon the beach. Meanwhile her husband, who learned that she had disappeared, started out in a rowboat with friends to search for her. Searching parties also went out in other boats. They returned at about 10:30 o'clock, and learned that Mrs. Twelvetree had been resuscitated and was doing well. running out strongly, and while the skipper was

KILLED BY A SKYROCKET.

The Blazing Stick Enters the Month of a Man Watching the Display, James Turner, a baker, 46 years old, of 46 South Eighth street, Williamsburgh, died yesterday at the Eastern District Hospital, He was the victim of reckless handling of fireworks some persons unknown to the police. The blazing stick from a skyrocket struck him full n the face and he received mortal injuries. The John B. Lyons Association of Williamsourgh had been to College Point for an outing on Tuesday, and on returning in the evening were landed at the South Tenth street pler The association had a permit to parade, but the permit did not include a fireworks display. Turner had stopped to speak to Charles Keale, a druggist in Wythe avenue near Morton street, a druggist in Wythe avenue near Morton street, when the paraders approached, Members of the club as well as speciators on the sidewalks set off fireworks, and 'lurner was struck. The rocket stick entered his mouth and went down his throat for fully three inches.

Druggist Keale removed the stick and Turner was taken to the Eastern District Hospital, where it was found that his tongue had been hadly burned, the posterior walls of the mouth lacerated, the upper and lower laws fractured, and the upper tecth knocked out.

The police had been told that Turner was not seriously wounded, so no arrests were made. Turner's condition became worse at midnight, and three hours later he died. A wife and eight children survive him.

FOUR LUCKY GUINEA PIGS. They Received Antitoxine - The Doctor

Says the Four that Didn't Will Die. Sr. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 16.-At to-day's session of the Mississippi Valley Medical Association Dr. F. M. Houghton of Detroit, Mich., took the platform for a demonstration of the therapeutic action of antitoxine. At one end of the room he produced two wire cages containing eight guines pigs. He injected diphtheritic poison into all and then immediately injected antitoxine into four. He asserts that inside of fortyeight hours the four which did not receive the antitoxine will die. THE ARKANSAS VOTE.

Pigures, Practically Complete, Show that LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 16,-Secretary of State Armistead has received official returns from seventy-three out of the seventy-five counties of the recent election held in this State. The counties that have not forwarded their official returns are Scott and Logan. These counties in 1894 gave Democratic plural ties of 794. According to the official returns the seventy three counties give the following vote for Governor: Jones, Popocrat, 86,590; Remmell, Republican, 34,139; Files, Populist, 13,325; Miler. Prohibitionist, 781. Jones's majority, 38, 345; Jones's plurality, 52,451. In 1804 Clarke, Democrat, received 74,809; Remmell, Republican, 26,085; Barker, Popu list, 24,541; Miller, Prohibitionist, 1,551. In 1892 the vote was: Democratic, 90,115; Repub-ican, 33,644; Populist, 31,117. Compared with 1894 the results this year show that the Popocrats have gained 12,000, 11,000 of which may be accounted for by the falling off of the Populist vote, which drops from 24,500 in 1894 to 13,300 in 1896. The Re publicans have gained 8,000 over their votes of two years ago. The Popocratic plurality in 1896 is 52,000, as against 48,000 two years ago.

When the vote this year is compared with that of four years ago, a Presidential year, a lifferent story is told. Compared with 1892 the Popocratic vote, despite the fact that 18,000 Populist votes went over to the Popocrats, is less than the Democratic vote of four years ago by 4,000. The Republican vote this year is increased 500 over that four years ago. The Populist vote drops from 31,000 to 13,000. The Democratic plurality four years ago was 50,000. This year, with the addition of from 11,000 to 18,000 Populist votes, it is only 52,000. The total vote in 1892 was 154,876; in 1896, 134,000. Analysis shows that about 15,000 gold Democrats and 5,000 Populists, making no allowances for increase in the vote, didn't vote. MAINE'S PLURALITY, 48,461.

Republican Gains Uniform, and the Labor Vote Not Stampeded PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 16.-According to the practically complete returns of Monday's election, the State will give Powers (Rep.), Governor, 82,749; Frank (Dem.), 34,288; Bateman (Pop.), 3,157; Ladd (Pro.), 2,367; Clifford (Gold Dem.), 567. The total vote of Maine ia 123,398. Republican plurality, 48,461.

The Republican vote is the largest ever cast in Maine. The aggregate vote is 20,000 less than the aggregate vote of 1888, which was the largest ever cast in Maine. Probably 20,000 Democratic voters refused to go to the polls on Monday on account of Bryanism.

The largest Republican vote ever previously 1 3: was 79,401 in 1888. It is probable U has increase this year is covered by the : e. of Democrats who voted the Republican ticket on Monday in order to emphasize their condemnation of Bryanism. Many of these have come to the Republican party to stay. There must have been also nearly 2,000 stay. There must have been also nearly 2,000 Democrats who "scratched" Frank and voted the remainder of the Democratic ticket.

As might have been expected in view of the fact that the Populists captured the Democratic Convention at Chicago, the Populist party vote, in spite of the energetic work of Mr. Bateman, has failen off from 1894, when it rose to 5,328. The fact that Bryan had been for several rears catering to the Populists, and had even gone so far as to state publicly that he would join the Populists of the Femocratic Convention rejected 16 to 1 free silver, made the Boy Orator a greater favorite in Populist than in Democratic cricles.

An examination of the returns shows that the Republican gains have been uniform. The rural parts of the State have shown as surprising gains as the cities and manufacturing towns. The farmers have been as solid in rejecting the free-silver heresy as the manufacturers, and the workingmen as emphatic in that direction as the business men. All alike have declared after a most careful discussion of the new issue that the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 meant nothing but silver for our money and a silver basis and a depreclated dollar, and that these would prove a calamity for all.

There was a very significant fact demonthat these would prove a calamity for all.

There was a very significant fact demonstrated on Monday. The labor vote is not to be "delivered." The most strenuous efforts were made by the leaders to "deliver" to Frank its vote of labor. I did not work.

The vote of the industrial centres shows that

The vote of the industrial centres shows that the American workman has laid all the uncertainty he wants, and refuses to step off into a silver abyas, not knowing where he will land. It will be remembered that just before election Popocratic effort, was made to prove that the greatest friend of labor on Maine soil was Mr. M. P. Frank, the Popocratic candidate for Governor, Mr. Frank was brought out on Labor Day as a simon pure product of love for the toiling millions.

If there is a man in Maine who is happy in defeat it is Luther C. Bateman. He has bitterly denounced the inconsistency of Sewall's nomination from the start, claiming that he had not represented the "new revolutionists" in any sense; in fact, was the antithesis of all they represent. He declared that Sewall could not make a decent showing in his own State.

KAIULANI GOING HOME.

Honolula Friends Will Welcome Her, but

Won't Imperil Her Pension. HONOLULU, Sept. 9, via San Francisco, Sept. 16. For a few days a week or more ago Honolulu was full of vague rumors of a movement to restore the monarchy, with Princess Kalulani as Queen. When traced to their source these rumors were all found to originate in a recent expression used by J. B. Castle to a reporter of a San Francisco paper that restoration under Kaiulani was a "hypothetical possibility." There is a total absence of any indication of such a movement or of any tendency that way. The return to Honolulu of the Princess Kaiulani is expected within a month. She is coming with her father, A. S. Cleghorn, is coming with her father, A. S. Cleghorn, after eight years' absence in England. She will probably receive an ovation on landing from natives and half whites, although many think that her friends will discourage such manifestations for fear that she might thereby imperil her pension of $2,000 a year. It is not probable that the Government would feel much concern about any such demonstrations, or interfers with any expressions of sympathy the natives might be disposed to show. President Dole returned on Aug. 31 from his three weeks outing on the island of Maul. He received public entertaisments at various points. On Aug. 20 the British bark Gninsborough ran upon the reef near Diamond Head signal station while the Cantain was in the cabin. She was sixty-six days out from Westnort, New Zesland, with 1,135 tons of coal for San Francisco. She came here for provisions. Unless heavy weather intervenes, it is hoped she may get off. Kilanea volcano was inactive two weeks ago,

Last week the fire fountains resumed the regu-lar play, with good promise of a long period of LUM WARREN LYNCHED.

It Is Not Known Whether He Was Burner Alive or Hanged. CUTHBERT, Ga., Sept. 16.-Lum Warren, the negro who assaulted Mrs. John Bass, has been lynched near Shellman, but whether by burning at the stake or by hanging is not known. The first report was that the negro had been burned alive. Subsequent information throws doubt upon this.

The scene of the lynching is several miles from any railroad, and there is little chance of any more definite information before morning. The people living in the neighborhood where the crime was committed were greatly wrought up, and as soon as the news of the capture reached them some began preparations for burning the man at the stake. Cooler heads attempted to dissuade those at the work, but whether they succeeded is not known. Mrs. Bass cannot recover.

A Negro Lynched in Okiahoma

WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 16.-The bitter feeling against Benjamin S. Morris, one of the negroes who murdered John Ruckman, a cattle dealer culminated in a lynching at Watonga, Oklahoma iast night. The enraged citizons stormed the jail, overpowered the jailer, dragged the terrified negro forth, atrung him up to the near-est tree, and left his body hanging there. The entire Anti-Horse Tailer Association is scouring the country for his accomplice, who, if captured, will meet the same fate,

MONEY SCARE IN HAVANA.

RESULT OF WEYLER FORCING PA PER ON THE PEOPLE.

Business Completely Paralyzed-Bankers Close Their Exchange Departments-The Moneyed Men Are Sending Their Gold and Silver Out of Cuba-Weyler's Obstlancy.

HAVANA, Sept. 16 .- Owing to the orders of the Spanish Government in relation to the issue of paper money, business in Havana is paralyzed. The civil Government requested the Stock Ex-change to enforce acceptance of this money, but it refused to make any transactions. The money question is the all-absorbing topic. Ever since Gen. Weyler issued his decree ordering the Spanish banks' paper money to be accepted at par with gold it was foreseen that serious complications would arise, because not having the Government's proper guarantee it could not be accepted as a circulating medium. The Government is doing all in its power to sustain the value of the paper, threatening with severe penalties those who re fuse to accept it on the same basis with gold. The Spanish Bank, with the assistance of the Government, in order to uphold its paper, announced its willingness to accept it in payment of drafts on Spain, but when one of the local bankers as a test case solicited from the bank a draft on Spain for $15,000, the bank refused, on the ground that it could not furnish bills to bankers who did not admit its paper in payment of their exchanges. By repudiating its own paper the bank has initiated a crisis in financial circles which has upset the money market, and many believe will end in a commercial panic Many efforts are being made to avert disaster by inducing Gen. Weyler to allow the quotation on exchange of the paper currency, that everybody should know its exact intrinsic value, but Weyler stands firm on his decree and does not allow the least variation of his orders. The result is that ever since then the Stock and Gold Exchange has not done any business, and all quotations are considered nom-

"On the other hand, all the bankers, in order to evade the penalties of Weyler's decree by refusing the acceptance of paper in payment of drafts, have decided close their exchange departments, alleging that they have no funds abroad to check against except when gold is offered in payment-and then the draft is furnished.

The Governor of the Spanish Bank called a meeting of all the bankers three days ago to see how the financial difficulty could be solved, but no definite agreement was reached, and the situation continues the same.

As a natural consequence the exportation of gold and silver is being carried on to a great extent, all the outgoing steamers carrying considerable quantities of the precious netals to Spain and the United States, this being attributed to the great distrust existing among the wealthy classes regarding future prospects.

TURKEY IS SURPRISED.

The Porte Boren't Understand England's Blind Rage.'

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 16 .- Turkish official ircles have issued a statement in which they say they cannot understand either the blind rage of the English press against the Turkish Government or the sympathy expressed for the Armenian Anarchists, whose plans are merely a repetition of the bomb throwing of the Irish Fenlans and their menacing of English buildings for the purpose of compelling the British Government to come to terms. The Armenian revolutionists, the statement declares, have formed an infamous conlition with Nibilists, Anarchists, and all demolishers of society. LONDON, Sept. 16.-The St. James's Gazette, in an article commenting upon the indifference of the European powers in regard to the Turksh massacres, proposes an alliance between the United States and Great Britain, in which Italy might possibly join.

the Gozette says, "the Americans can undera'and he impulses driving a free people into war in order to rescue the oppressed. If the three powers mentioned should present a joint demand to the Government at Constantinople, it is improbable that any serious employment of force would be necessary.

THE CINCINNATI'S MISSION.

Orders to Hasten the Cruiser's Departure for Gibralter.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.-The Navy Depart ment this afternoon sent instructions to the commandant of the New York Navy Yard to hasten the departure of the cruiser Cincinnati of the European station and to have her get away from the lower bay not later than the 19th inst. At the same time instructions were sent to her commander to proceed at ordinary cruising speed direct to Gibralter, there to report to Ad miral Seltridge, commanding the station, and follow his orders. Admiral Selfridge has been cabled to detach the Marblehead on the arriva of the Cincinnati, exchange some of the men or of the Cincinnati, exchange some of the men on the San Francisco and Minneapolis, and then have her proceed to New York, where she will be overhauled preparatory to joining the home station. This withdrawai of the Marblehead is said to be due to the fact that the term of a great number of men on the station have expired, and her return home is in order to afford them transportation. It is not intended that the European naval force shall be weakened, and another vessel will probably soon follow the Cincinnati to take the place of the Marblehead under Admiral Seifridge, Both she and the Bancroft are fitted out for three years' cruises.

Our Navy Makes a Chart of a Turkis; Harbor, WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.-The active interest manifested by the Navy Department in Turkey is indicated by the publication yesterday by the Naval Hydrographic Office of a chart of Mersine Naval Hydrographic Omes of a chart of Mersine Roadstead, from an exhaustive survey recently completed by the officers of the United States ship Marblehead, who, it is understood, have been making soundings and other investigations in all the poorly chartered Turkish harbors they have visited. The new Mersine chart, which is printed in colors, exhibits all the important features of the coast line, locating even the noticeable trees, billocks, steeples, and ruins ashore, as well as the depths and channels.

TEXAS FAST IN THE MUD.

The Engines Wouldn't Stop When She Was Entering Newport Harbor NEWPORT, R. L. Sept. 16.-United States second-class battle ship Texas to-night added another mishap to her career. In compliance with orders she was coming here for her torpedo outfit. She made the harbor shortly after 6 o'clock, and at about 6:20 landed upon the torpedo station, having first gone over toward the Jamestown shore, and then turned and came across the bay for anchorage. For some reason the ship's engines did not stop when they should and she kept forging ahead. Her anchor was dropped, but still she did not stop, and when too late her helm was thrown over with the hope of clearing the island and going to sea again. The water shouls very rapidly here, and when she struck, with land on her port quarter, she ran her nose some two feet out of her water and her stern was crowded under. Drawing some twenty-three feet of water, with the tide three hours down, she was embedded hard and fast in the heavy muq. It was just about dusk, and to her assistance and pulled tight on the tow line, but made no impression. It was some time after the ship struck before her engines finally stopped. The tide was still falling, but it is not believed that her position is serious. Divers say that the bottom is quite free from rocks.

signal rockets were at once sent up. A tug went

A larger tug was engaged to-night, and abou o'clock she will go out and make an attempt to pull her off on the rising tide, which does not become high until nearly 4 o'clock. An attempt was made to board her shortly after she struck, but the gangway was closed to all visitors and all information was refused. Some believe that it will require more than an ordinary tide and small tugs to haul her off. This feeling is apparently shared by Capt. Glass and his officers, for their crew seem to be lightening her forward as much as pos

PLAYS THE ZITHER WITH HIS EAR. Yet He Is Detained at Ellis Island Because of a Leg of Mutton.

Leopold Weiss, a young German immigrant who arrived yesterday on the steamship Munchen from Bremen, was detained at Ellis Island because he had been arrested on the other side for stealing a leg of mutton. He said he was a musician, and that the leg of motton had disappeared while he was entertaining a party of German students in a café. He declared that one of the students took the mutton. He was accompanied by his younger brother Jacob, accompanied by his younger brother Jacob, who, never having puriolned mutton or anything else, was permitted to hand.

The Board of Inquiry asked Leopold what kind of musician he was, and he said his specialty was zither playing. The Board asked him to give them a sample of his art and he did so. The zither had lost two strings on the voyage, but was otherwise in good condition. Leopold first played the zither in the usual way. Then he played it with his nose, which is long and sharp. Then he played it literally by ear, using his ear just as he had his nose. His music had charms to soothe the breats of the Board, and they told him they would reconsider his case to-day. They are inclined to think that the leg of mutton may have danced off in a fit of extasy after seeing Leopold play with his nose.

Afro-Americans. St. Louis, Sept. 16.-The National Colored Raptist Association of the United States met in the First Baptist Church here this morning The Convention will last nearly a week, and is attended by over 500 delegates.

In view of the trouble and dissatisfaction caused by the refusal of the hotels to accommo date the Afro-American delegates to the date the Afro-American delegates to the National Republican Convention here in June, the Committee on Arrangements decided to go into the hotel business on its own account. The cold Hurst's Hotel on Fourth street was secured and fitted up for the occasion. Most of the delegates will be lodged there. The vestry and Sunday school rooms of the First Raptist Church have been converted into a dining hall, and there the guests will be fed.

HICKEY'S RUBBER NIGHT STICK.

Usen It to Make Frutt Peddiers Move On. Policeman Hickey of the Oak street squad. whose beat is on Park row, having found it impossible to make the street fruit venders move away when ordered, without using his night stick in a manner that wouldn't be approved by the Commissioners, armed himself last night with a long piece of black rubber hose. This h with a long piece of clack rubber hose. This he concealed in the leg of his trousers when he went on post. When the venders refused to move he charged them with splitted night stick. When close to an Italian, he substituted the rubber hose for the nightstick, and whacked the fruit vender across the back with it. The Italian screamed as much as if the nightstick had been used, and the fruit peddlers kept off Hickey's beat for the rest of the evening.

the political situation in this State, said yes terday: "There does not seem to be much necessity for very vigorous campaigning against Bryan here. Mckinley's plurality will surely be 100,-000, and it may reach 200,000. The work to be done should be done in the West and South."

CONVENTION IN SESSION.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

GOING THROUGH A FARCE TO PRE-SERVE THE STATE MACHINE.

The Utterances of the Leaders at Saratogs and Chicago to Be Stuttfled-Thomas F. Grady, as Temporary Chairman, in His Speech Goes Back on Bis Record at Chie eago and Talks in Favor of Free Silver

-The Convention Adjourns Until To-day,

BUFFALO, Sept. 16,-Every Democrat in the and who believes in the ancient principles of his party, and not in the Chicago demand for repudiation, should have attended the first session of the Democratic State Convention, which was held in Buffalo's Music Hall to-day. The Convention was a painful spectacle of the depths to which the party organization in the State has sunk. It is going through a farce at the behers of the old Democratic leaders who have refused o come here. Not a single Democratic leader of any renown was in the Convention. All were absent, while their dummies carried through the programme agreed upon. This programms is merely carried out for the preservation of the regularity of the State machines and nothing else. That is the principle which is the foundation stone of this Convention. Every Democrat of high principles in the State is looking at this Convention with utter detestation. The Democratic leaders who are handling it from a distance will not, it is asserted, attain new eminence in our time. The Convention stultifies every utterance of the Democratic leaders of the State at Chicago. It stultifies every Democratic platform adopted in the State since 1876. All of this debasing political stultification has been decided upon for no other reason than to maintain the regularity of the Democratic machines in the State. Every principle of high honor in the party has been thrown to the winds for this purpose, and for this purpose alone. Political leaders have been frequently heard to say that the people are prone to forget, and to forget quickly, political events. These political leaders bank on this fact, and they declare that the voters, in the hurry and scurry of every-day business life, can be relied upon to forget a political circumstance, whether it be of great or little moment. It is not the purpose of the Democrats of high principle in the State to allow the work of this Convention to go unforgotten. The Democrats of high principle in other States will also not forget the work of this Convention, and from this time on it is predicted that the Democratic organization of the State, and Tammany Hall, and the Kings rounty organization, will be held up to obloquy and scorn. Every platform in every Democratic State Convention for twenty years has declared for sound money and high Democratic principles. The Saratoga Convention, which was held on June 24, declared for sound money. The New York delegation at Chicago, following instructions at Saratoga, spoke up the honor of the Democracy of the State. Senator Hill at Chicago, in one of the greatest speeches of his career, denounced the Chicago platform, and the New York delegation refused to participate in the work of that Convention after the plat-form was adopted. Yet the State Convention which began its sessions here to-day, and which is under the complete control of Senator Hill. senator Murphy, Richard Croker, and Hugh McLaughlin, stultified everything that was done at Saratoga and at Chicago. It is a specimen of professional politics that will not be tolerated by the Democrats of the State. It is not claimed that the Democratic leaders are at heart in sympathy with the work of this Convention, but it is insisted that they should not by their course allow the Democrats of other States to believe that they have not only stultifled themselves, but stultifled the Democratic organization of the Empire State, Neither Senator Hill, Senator Murphy, Richard Croker, or Hugh McLaughlin is here. They are represented by their minor lieutenints. Never was a Convention so barren of well-known Democrats. Even the delegates look at each other and wink, knowing full well that a green goods game is going on. There is sincerity in the Convention. There is no heart in it. All on the ground are fully aware that a political gamble is going on, and nothing more. Some of the friends of the Democratic leaders defend their conduct by declaring that the New York delegation in the next Democratic National Convention must retain its autonomy as the regular organization of the State if it is to have any influence. They further claim that Bryanism and repudiation will be smashed out of existence on election. gay, and that after that the regular Democratio organization of the State will be in position to do advantageous work toward rejuvenating the party. Meantime the Democratic organization of the State is forced to become a drab and a hissing to all Democrats of high principles who do not believe in subordinating the ancient principles of the party for the sake of carrying out the terms of a political gamble. The Convention hall was festooned with the national colors and there was a band. John C. Sheehan, the acting leader of Tammany Hall, was the biggest Democrat on the Convention floor, although William Henry Clay Sulzer got the greatest ovation, One of Mr. Sulzer's friends up in the gallery acted as his advertising agent and herald. On the advent of the Hon. William Henry Clay this advertising agent, whose name is Capt. De Manville, and who was once a member of the Thirteenth Regiment of Brooklyn. sang out, "Three cheers for the people's candidate, William Sulzer." Capt. De Manville varied his calls for Sulzer by declaring. "That's the man the people want for Governor" and There are no goldbugs on William Sulzer." These sentiments evoked an evation for Mr. Sulzer, and Mr. Sulzer smiled as if it was the crowning event in his career. Chairman James W. Hinkley lost no time in getting the Convention under way. This was the last time that he was to preside as Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, whose duty it is to start the work of the Convention, Beside him on the platform was Charles R. Defrecst, clerk of the Democratic State Committee, and this was Mr. Defreest's last time to preside as clerk of a Democratic State Convention. There was no fuss and no feathers and no enthusiasm and no anything. Chairman Hinkley whacked his gavel and made the simple announcement that, by direction of the Democratic State Committee, the Hon. Thomas F. Grady of New York had been selected to be temporary Chairman of the Convention, and after that Mr. Hinkley perpetrated one of his little jokes. He named Norman E. Mack of Buffalo and Norton Chase of Albany, two of the new Democratic Golialis in the State, to escort Senator Grady to the platform. The silver-tongued orator of Tammany Hall, as he walked down the aisles between Mr. Mack and Mr. Chase, did not seem to mind his company at all. He has never had political affiliations with Mr. Mack or Mr. Chase, but Senator Grady was to go upon that platform and stultify every utterance he made at Chicago, so a little thing like trotting down the alsie of the Convention with Mr. Mack and Mr. Chase did not count. Senator Grady was one of the New York

Democrats who got upon the platferm of the Chicago National Convention and denounced the work of that Convention. He slam-banged into the Tillmans and Altgelds who ran the Chicago Convention, and yet to-day he stood before this State Convention and uplifted his voice for everything that was done at Chicago, and defended "repudiation, riot, and ruin," He merely drove another nail into Tammany's coffin. Senator Grady in his speech disavowed every utterance that he made at Chicago, and all this was done for no other reason than to preserve the regularity of Tammany Hall, Where at Chicago he denounced the dishoner
